

Expo shows Irish talent

THE World Music Expo is set to showcase some of Ireland's best bands and musicians.

Arts Minister Jimmy Deenihan said the Cardiff event, which runs from today until Sunday, is great for Irish talent.

He added: "WOMEX is an opportunity for Irish artists to generate international bookings."

